Volta Chair

TF-CH-VLT

A modern formed-plywood café chair that combines lightness with durability. The Volta's single-piece birch plywood shell — with its visible edge layers as a design feature — sits on slim chrome sled legs. An optional removable seat pad adds comfort for longer service periods. Stackable up to 6 high for easy storage. Ideal for high-volume cafes, food courts, and casual dining environments that need a contemporary aesthetic without compromising practicality.
